He said if I really loved him, I'd have
sex with him

If he really loved you,
he wouldn't push you.

Using emotional pressure or physical threats to engage in sexual acts is COERCION. When you see a RED FLAG in your friend's relationship, say something.
